MINING PROMOTER

Frank C. Helm, who is said to be mining promoter, was arrested to-day by Deputy Sheriff Barns on an order algaed by Justice Scott, in the Supreme Court. He was charged with contempt of court in failing to appear for examin along in supplementary proceedings, and was locked up in Ludlow Street Jall. He subsequently gave ball in $11.000 and was discouraged from custody.

Charles B. Brown, in March, 1304, obtained a judgment against Helm and Frank M. Bra'shaw for $11.000. The arrest to-day grew out of this suit.

When the news that Mr. Yerkes was fill to the point of death was first issued it was reported he was a sick man when he came from London in November and went immediately to the Waldorf-Astoria, where he took to his bed, suffering from Bright's disease. To explain why he went to a hotel instead of to his own magnificent home it was said that an addition to the art gallery of his house was being constructed, and that it was feared the noise made by the workmen would distract the sick man.

that it was feared the noise made by the workmen would distract the sick man.

The present Mrs. Yerkes is the second wife of Charles T. Yerkes. The circumstances under which she became Mrs. Yerkes are well known in Philadelphia and Chicago.

He was married early in life and had two children, but the match croyed unlappy. He separated from his wire and they were divorced.

Before he went to prison he met the present Mrs. Yerkes. She was a beautiful and fassinating woman. Through all his troubles in Philadelphia she remained loyal to him, and they were a very happy couple when, having done with Philadelphia, Charles T. Yerkes started to conquer in the West.
